

Soul Purpose Map

Soul purpose is your big WHY. The reason you are here in this life.

There is not just one answer to your soul purpose, just like there is not just one word to describe all of YOU.

You are multi-dimensional...and so is your purpose, my Dear!

Think of it as a sphere that you can come at from many different angles...or many mirrors to see the different sides of yourself.

The more angles you take, the fuller picture you get of your purpose. You also get a beautiful reflection back of your uniqueness, your gifts and your mission in life.
